Reforma, and Chapultepec Park, one of the most important residential zones in the city. Overnight at hotel in Mexico City. (B)

Day 03: Mexico City - Teotihuacan Pyramids, Guadalupe Shrine Excursion

After breakfast, start with a visit to the incredible pyramids of Teotihuacan, "the place where the Gods were born," and home to more than 2,500 years of history. This ceremonial center was vital in the development of textiles and natural fibres as well as the Obsidian Exchange. Visit the enigmatic archaeological site, visiting the temples of "Quetzalpapalotl" (butterfly bird), the "Feathered Shells" and the Pyramid of the Moon, ending at the impressive Pyramid of the Sun. Next visit Guadalupe Shrine, Mexico's largest religious sanctuary that houses the venerated image in Mexico, the Virgin of Guadalupe. Overnight in at hotel in Mexico City. (B)

Day 04: Mexico City - Merida

After Breakfast check out and take the flight to Merida. Upon arrival you will be transferred to the hotel. Rest of the day at leisure and overnight at hotel in Merida. (B)

Day 05: Merida- Excursion to Uxmal and Kabah

After breakfast, proceed on a full day tour of Uxmal and Kabah archaeological areas. Uxmal in Maya means "three times built". The guide will explain the Puuc's highly decorative and detailed architecture style of buildings such as the Nun's Quadrangle, the Ball court, the Turtle House and the Governor Palace. After your Uxmal tour you will explore the archeological site of Kabah, meaning "lord of a strong hand". Kabah is linked to Uxmal by a "sacbe" or white road used for ceremonial purposes. Kabah is one of the stops of the Puuc Route and here you can find many structures with carved masks of the God Chaac, the important god of rain for the Mayans. You last stop before you return to Merida will be a restaurant for a delicious regional lunch. Overnight in Merida (B, L)

Day 06: Merida - Tour to Chichen Itza Archaeological Park - Cancun

After early breakfast, you drive 1.5 hrs southeast of the city of Merida to the ruins of the ancient Mayan city of Chichen Itza that means "At the mouth of the Well of the Itza people". Explore the masterpiece of Pyramid of Kukulkan, the largest and most important ceremonial building in the ancient city. Walk to the Sacred Cenote, used for the worship of Chaac, the Mayan god of rain. In Chichen Itza you will also visit the Temple of the Thousand Columns, The Observatory, and The Ball Court. You will then enjoy a delicious Yucatecan lunch before being transferred to Cancun. Upon arrival, check in and overnight at hotel in Cancun. (B, L, D)

Day 07: Cancun- Tour Tulum & Xel-Ha Eco Water Park

After breakfast you proceed to Tulum, the only archaeological zone in the area with views of the sea, and the natural beauty of the Xel-Ha inlet, a natural aquarium ideal for snorkelling. The ruins of Tulum are perched high atop a cliff, against the awe inspiring backdrop of the Caribbean Sea. Tulum flourished in late Post-classical times with buildings dating back to the 12th century, once an important trading port. You will then take a guided tour of the ruins to learn about the secrets of the Mayans looking at important sites such as the Castle, the Temple of the Masks and the God Chaac all known for their historical significance. Then driving back toward Cancun, to the incredible natural aquatic theme park created by the Mayan gods themselves: Xel-Ha. This special place gathers the best of the Mexican Caribbean all in one place. Enjoy nature through the crystal clear waters of this spectacular natural aquarium. An environment of creeks, lagoons, natural wells and ancient caves is fed by underground rivers flowing out to the beautiful Caribbean Sea. Explore the underwater world by snorkel to come face to face with exotic underwater flora and fauna such as curious rays and French Angel fish. Other activities include cliff diving, Rope Bridge walking, bicycling, kayaking, swim with the dolphins, scuba, underwater breathing bubble and much more! (B, D)
