

Great Bear Rainforest Cruise - 8N/9D

Visit: Bella 1N | Great Bear Rainforest Cruise 7N |

Sightseeing: Experience: Cruising, spotting whales, sea lions & dolphins, sightings of black bears, grizzly bears & even the elusive & rare white spirit bear.

Day 1: Arrive At Bella Bella

Upon arrival at the Bella Bella Airport by Pacific Coast Airlines from Vancouver, collect your luggage and step outside and look for Starr Shuttle. They will be notified of your arrival and a driver will be there to meet your flight to transport you to the water taxi that will take you to the Shearwater Resort & Marina for the night. Mention to the driver that you are a Bluewater guest. Overnight at Shearwater Resort.

Day 2: On Cruise

Meet at the Shearwater dock at 1000 hrs for boarding. Upon boarding the ship you will meet the crew, cabins will be assigned, and everyone will participate in an introductory and safety orientation. Then you set sail into the Great Bear Rainforest. Overnight on board the ship. (L, D)

Day 3: Cruising the Shores of the Great Bear Rainforest

From today, you will travel to a number of areas around the central coast such as Campania Sound and Whale Channel – both excellent areas for spotting humpback whales and stellar sea lions. Time and weather permitting, you go ashore in the Gitga’at (Princess Royal Island) Conservancy. You will cruise over to Bishop Bay to enjoy a relaxing dip in the hot springs and spend a day with a Gitga’at native guide, taking you to his favourite bear viewing area. With patience and some luck you will see black bears and the elusive, white spirit bear! You may visit the First Nations village of Klemtu or Hartley Bay to see their ceremonial Big Houses. You will voyage deep into the coastal mountains to explore the Fiordland Conservancy where, beneath towering rock bluffs and waterfalls, you will search remote estuaries to see grizzly bears feeding on spawning salmon. Overnight on board ship. (B, L, D)
