similar for 9 days. You will self -drive from airport to the Sydney hotel. Check in & freshen up. Today the day is free and easy for you to explore the place. Experience fine dining, opera, coastal walks and history. Do consider some of our recommendations below (at your own cost)

Go backstage at the Sydney Opera House – Walk around Circular Quay and see why the Sydney Opera House continues to dazzle. With a varied and full program, the Opera House is one of the city’s busiest music, arts and performance venues. To learn about the inner workings of this icon, take a Backstage Tour.

Climb the Iconic Sydney Harbour Bridge – The Sydney Harbour Bridge is a great engineering feat, originally opened in 1932. Visitors are free to walk or cycle across this vast structure that spans Sydney Harbour. Better yet, book one of the many Bridge Climb expeditions which will take you high into the superstructure. No special climbing skills are required – twilight and dawn climbs are great.

Show Boat Dinner Cruise - You can also explore the evening dinner cruise and enjoy the show on the cruise.

Sydney Sea Plane: Enjoy the aerial view of the Sydney city and Bondi Beach by Sydney Sea Plane flight. Capture the breath taking views from the plane in your camera.

Day 02: Sydney – Hunter Valley (02 hrs approx)

Breakfast at the hotel. Today you will drive through Newcastle and stop to surf at Nobby's Beach, swim at Bar Beach, hang – glide at Dixon Park or scuba dive the many wrecks near Newcastle Harbour (on your own). Relax with lunch (on own) at a café along the boardwalk or at Queens Wharf, before heading to the vines of the Hunter Valley. The region with 120 wineries including established names like McGuigan, Tyrrell, Tulloch and Drayton. You can also explore the Hunter Valley Gardens. Overnight at hotel in Hunter Valley. (B)
