

Great Eastern Drive: Tasmania – 8N/9D

Visit: Hobart 2N | Orford 1N | Swansea 1N | Freycinet 2N | St. Helen 2N |

Sightseeing: The Great Eastern Drive Tasmania is a scenic road trip that takes in some of the state's iconic natural wonders on the island to the south of Australia. Easily accessible from both Hobart and Launceston via a short drive, the Great Eastern Drive is where you will discover some of Tasmania's most beautiful spots including the picturesque Bay of Fires and the famous Wineglass Bay. You'll also find charming coastal towns along the way and a number of great places to taste some of the delicious produce and wine that Tasmania is renowned for.

Itinerary

Day 01: Arrive Hobart

Welcome to Hobart! On arrival at the airport you will pick the rental car and self drive to the hotel.

Immerse yourself in the beauty of Tasmania's east coast on this attraction-packed drive. Sea kayak and hunt down history on Maria Island, sample farm-fresh berries and wine near Swansea and take in the perfect contours of Wineglass Bay in Freycinet National Park. Bushwalk in the rainforest of Douglas-Apsley National Park and game fish or dive from the picturesque port of St Helens Park. Rest of the day is free Overnight at the Hobart hotel. Meals:

Day 02: Hobart – Orford via Maria Island National Park

Today you will leave Hobart and travel through Sorrell, where you can stock up on supplies or stop for fish and chips. From here, curve inland to the tiny holiday town of Orford, on the mouth of the Prosser River and on to Triabunna where you can take a ferry to Maria Island.

With no shops or cars, the island is a tranquil bushwalking and wildlife haven. Climb to the cliff-tops on the challenging Bishop and Clark or walk to the Painted Cliffs and Fossil Cliffs, filled with sea creature sediments more than 300 million years old. See the threatened Cape Barren geese, Forrester kangaroos, and Flinders Island wombats or scuba dive the marine reserve in the island's northern end. Visit Bloodstone Point, where the Oyster Bay Aboriginal tribe collected stones to make hair colouring. Overnight at the Orford Hotel. Meals: None

Day 03: Orford – Swansea

You depart Orford and enjoy panoramic views from the Three Thumbs Reserve in the Wielangta Forest. Then follow one of the country's most stunning stretches of coast towards the white beaches and pink-and-grey granite cliffs of the Freycinet Peninsula. Visit a berry farm, boutique vineyards and the Wine and Wool Centre in and around Swansea. Then do a heritage walk or visit the quirky convict-built Spiky Bridge just out of town. Swim, surf, dive and fish from the Mayfield Bay Coastal Reserve and walk to lookouts over the picturesque coastline. Check in the Swansea hotel. Overnight at Swansea Hotel. Meals: None

Day 04: Swanswa – Freycinet National Park

Today you will check out of the hotel. Self drive to capture the perfect contours of Wineglass Bay on your camera. Plenty of optional activities swim, boat, fish, snorkel and scuba dive from the dreamy white beach. At the end of the day, relax overlooking Great Oyster Bay. Overnight at Freycinet National Park. Meals: None

Day 05: Freycinet National Park: Day at Leisure

Today the whole day is free for the optional activities like, Go abseiling in the Hazards and four wheel drive to Cape Tourville Lighthouse, where the view will make you dizzy. Surf from Friendly Beaches and sea kayak next to dolphins in Honeymoon Bay. Overnight at Freycinet National Park. Meals: None

Day 06: Freycinet National Park – St Helens

Today you will drive north to the holiday haven of Bicheno, where you can sea kayak, dive, snorkel or jump on a glass-bottomed boat. Walk to Rocking Rock and the Bicheno Blowhole or join a fine wine tour. Watch the dusk parade of Little penguins and see Tasmanian devils, kangaroos, and pelicans at the local wildlife park. Stop for a swim at the Apsley River Waterhole or bushwalk in Douglas-Apsley National Park. Follow the scenic road to the shimmering Chain of Lagoons and stop at Elephant Pass for a plate of the town's famous, European-style pancakes. In St Marys, climb to the top of St Patrick's Head or the more accessible South Sister Peak, from where you can look out at a fairytale patchwork of forest and coast. Finish your day of discovery in the charming fishing village of St Helens. Overnight at St. Helens Hotel. Meals: None

Day 07: St Helens: Day at Leisure

Today learn about the Georges Bay Aboriginal tribe, and the whalers, sailors and Chinese tin miners who shaped the region in the St Helens History Room. Visit the historic house of Fair Lee, catch bream in the Scamander River and swim from the beaches around Georges Bay. Next, stop off at the resort town of Binalong Bay. Walk along the white sands and surf, swim and fish in the emerald sea. Overnight at St. Helens. Meals: None
