Day trip to Muscat - Muscat is Oman's financial and trade centre. Hamad bin Said took Muscat as Oman's capital from Rustaq (between 1779 – 1792) and this has never since been contested. Today, under the leadership of His Majesty Sultan Qaboos, Muscat has improved beyond recognition, but has never lost its pride in its heritage and culture.

The capital area is a prime example of intelligent and aesthetic development, blending the ancient and modern. Famous landmarks include Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque, Muttrah Souq, the forts of Al-Jalali and Al-Mirani which flank his Majesty's colourful and elegant Al-Alam Palace, Burj As-Sahwa, Clock Tower Square, and Al-Bustan Palace Hotel; a building of great eminence throughout the Arabian Peninsula. Muscat has a number of beautiful beaches such as Qurum Beach, Bandar Al-Jissah and Yeti. Public gardens and parks are everywhere with Qurum Natural Park, Riam and Kalbouh being the most popular.

Bait Al Zubair Museum - Bait Al Zubair, a showcase for traditional Omani crafts and culture, is located within the winding streets of Oman's enchanting capital city of Muscat. The museum houses one of Oman's finest and most comprehensive collections of artifacts from all over the Sultanate. Its displays include traditional Omani weaponry, jewellery, costume, domestic utensils and recreated urban and rural environments. Overnight at Al Nahda Resort & Spa. Meals: Breakfast
